THE PIASA BIRD

Chautauqua, Illinois

How We Got Our Name

The Legend of the Piasa Bird

Long years ago, when the country was inhabited by a very large and prosperous tribe of Indians known as the Illini (or Illinois), at a time when this tribe was at the height of its prosperity, they were terrified at the appearance on the inaccessible bluffs where it made its home, of an immense and hideous animal, half bird, half beast, which, from the fact of its having wings, the natives called "Piasa" or "Man-destroying Bird." This monster is described as being of gigantic size; so strong that it could carry off a buffalo in its talons. In appearance it was most frightful: Its wings as black as the raven's, and clothed with thunder; its legs, four in number, had talons like those of an eagle; its body was like that of a dragon, and covered with glistening scales; its enormous tail ended like that of a fish. In its flight it made a most terrific appearance, inspiring those who saw it with terror and awe.

While the people gazed awe-struck this bird swooped down and carried off brave after brave to its den in the rocks. The appetite of this monster seemed to grow more ravenous the more it tasted of human blood.

The tribe was rapidly diminishing in numbers from the ravages of this monster. Ouatoga, chief of the once mighty Illini, retired to a secret place with his priests to implore the aid of the Great Spirit. While engaged in fasting and mummerly of his religion, it was revealed to him the manner in which the monster might be destroyed. The mode was this: First, a noble victim was to be selected from among the bravest warriors, who by religious rites was to be sanctified for the sacrifice. Secondly, twenty-five warriors of the bravest, with their stoutest bows and sharpest arrows, were to conceal themselves near the place of sacrifice. The victim was to be led forth and alone take his position upon an exposed point of rock, where the destroyer would be most likely to discover and seize upon him. At the moment of the monster's descent, the concealed warriors were to let fly their arrows, with the assurance that the Piasa would be slain.

On the day appointed, the braves retired to their secret place as directed by the vision, near where the victim was to stand. The name of the victim had been kept secret up to the hour of sacrifice. Judge, then, the astonishment, when dressed in his proudest robes, Ouatoga appeared himself the victim. The tears and shrieks of the women, and the expostulations of the chiefs, availed nothing; he was bent on his solemn promise. With a proud step he walked forth and took his place on the appointed spot, while the people looked on with bated breath. Soon the monster, cleaving the air with his horrid wings, was seen hovering over the spot, and after wheeling about for a few moments, high over the head of the doomed man, nearing at each gyration, he suddenly came thundering down to seize his prey. Just as his awful talons grazed the plumes of the chieftan's head, twenty-five bow-strings twanged, and twenty-five sharp arrows sped as were never bolts shot before, piercing the monster's breast. An appalling death-shriek, such as mortals never heard before, resounded on the cliffs and the common foe lay writhing in death. The Piasa was dead and Ouatoga, the beloved chief, stood unharmed. Unbounded rejoicing succeeded the event. Ouatoga was borne in triumph to the council house. In commemoration of the event, a picture of the Piasa was painted on the rocks that lay beneath the spot where it was killed, where it remained for centuries and was plain to be seen, until a few years ago the bluff was quarried away for the purpose of making lime.

A Greeting from the President

Saturday, June 15, marks the beginning of Chautauqua's 72nd Year. I must say that since taking office things have been happening so fast that any kind of a pause would surely be a "Pause That Refreshes," especially when it brings back memories, some good and some very disheartening.

Among the pleasant memories are the completion of the pool and the wonderful feeling of Friendship that existed during our past Season. The disheartening memory of course is of the disastrous fire. Our heartfelt sympathy goes to everyone who suffered a loss.

All of the committees have worked faithfully with the aim of making Chautauqua a better place in which to relax and enjoy the many forms of entertainment which have been planned for you. Of course, as in all matters of such extensive proportions, the work cannot be done by a few, but we feel assured that we can rely on your all-out cooperation.

If you expect guests notify Gatekeeper in advance and make arrangement for admission charges either by paying for guests' admission or authorizing Gatekeeper to collect admission charges from your guests. Failure to make advance arrangements can cause embarrassment as Gatekeeper is not required to admit strangers to grounds simply because they announce they have come to visit a Chautauqua resident.

Life at Chautauqua

Religious Program

It is the religious life at Chautauqua that sets it apart from other vacation spots. Founded in 1885 as the Piasa Bluffs Assembly, a camp meeting ground for Methodists, Chautauqua has a rich heritage in Christian living.

Throughout each season, those who come to Chautauqua are privileged to hear many of the finest ministers from the surrounding area. The list of guest ministers for Sunday morning worship services for the 1957 season includes an outstanding missionary from West Africa, the head of the Metropolitan Church Federation of St. Louis, outstanding ministers of the Metropolitan St. Louis area, and prominent ministers from Alton and surrounding Illinois towns. August 11 has been designated Youth

Sunday and Chautauqua youth will conduct the entire worship service.

To carry out the day-to-day religious program and to conduct the Thursday night devotions, we are fortunate to have returning to us this season, Lynn D. Meeden, the Resident Minister who gained such popularity and did such outstanding work during the 1956 season. His wife, Ardeth, again will head the musical program and conduct the choirs. She also will be pianist for the Song Fest in the auditorium preceding the movies. Both graduates of Shurtleff College, Lynn is studying at Chicago University's Seminary and Ardeth is a teacher in the public schools.

With the benefit of a year's experience at Chautauqua and their specialized training in music and theology, the Meedens will make certain a highly successful religious and musical season in 1957.

LYNN D. MEEDEN

Following chapel devotions on July 11, July 25, and August 1, Dr. Wesley H. Hager of Grace Church, St. Louis, will show slides taken during his world trip in late 1956 and describe conditions as he found them in the world on that trip. His talks and pictures have been acclaimed by hundreds of audiences.

Sunday Morning Church

An impressive group of visiting ministers have accepted invitations to preach at Sunday morning worship services during the 1957 season. The tradition of inviting prominent Protestant preachers from a variety of denominations is being maintained in the 1957 program. Youth Sunday on August 11 will find Chautauqua youth conducting the entire worship service.

Regardless of where you may be accustomed to worshipping on Sunday, you will find the 11:00 o'clock worship service at Chautauqua a thrilling and satisfying experience. Held in the open-air auditorium, there is a serenity in the worship service in the peaceful Chautauqua Valley that is never forgotten. Mr. Meeden, as Resident Minister, will be in charge of the services with Mrs. Meeden conducting the choirs and serving as pianist. Consult "Daily Program of Events" for guest ministers.

Church School

Each Sunday morning at 9:45 a.m. Church School is held in the auditorium under the supervision of Mr. Joseph L. Rain and Mrs. Milton Grimm. A staff of capable teachers provides excellent training for all age groups. Accredited attendance cards are given those who attend. Special recognition is given those with a perfect attendance record throughout the season.

Thursday Chapel

The Thursday night devotional service at 7:30 is a traditional part of Chautauqua life.

The services held in Memorial Chapel will be under the leadership of the Resident Minister, Lynn Meeden. Mrs. Meeden will serve as pianist at the services and on several occasions the Youth Choirs will sing.

On three Thursday nights, immediately following the chapel services, Dr. Wesley H. Hager will report on his recent world trip and show slides of countries he visited. These services will be held at the auditorium immediately following chapel services on July 11, July 25, and August 1.

Recreational Program

The Recreational program at Chautauqua for the coming season promises to be one of the most active in many years. For the children, Play School has been extended to include an afternoon session. The new swimming pool, which will be open every afternoon and two evenings per week, will provide plenty of recreational opportunities for young and old . . . and an ambitious series of tournaments in a wide variety of sports will give everybody an opportunity for recreation and competition. The following pages highlight what's to come. Refer to Daily Program of Events for details of tournaments.

Play School

MISS BARBARA ROGERS

. . . Play School Director

Chautauqua children are fortunate this year that the Play School, which they are privileged to attend, will be under the direction of Miss Barbara Rogers, assisted by Miss Judy Scherman. Both Miss Rogers and Miss Scherman are experienced in Play School work and last season collaborated to provide a fine Play School.

Chautauquans since birth, they are thoroughly familiar with Chautauqua traditions and maintain the Play School on the high level for which it has become famous. Both young ladies possess a deep interest in and love for Chautauqua children.

In addition to the usual morning Play School session, 10 to 12 o'clock Monday through Friday at the chapel, there will be special afternoon supervised play from 1:30 to 3:00 p.m. at the swimming pool or playgrounds. Play School is for all Chautauqua children up to the age of 12.

MISS JUDY SCHERMAN

. . . Play School Assistant

Athletics

The athletic program for the 1957 season again is under the chairmanship of Ken Schulenburg, assisted by a capable committee and augmented by a number of tournament chairmen. The program is a full one and so varied that both young and old may participate. As usual, the only part of the recreational program for which there is a charge is for use of the swimming pool. All games such as baseball, roque, bowling on the green, tennis, badminton, horseshoes, shuffleboard, archery and fencing may be engaged in without charge. For some of them the participants must furnish their playing equipment but privilege to playing fields is included in grounds admission ticket.

In all phases of the athletic program wide participation is encouraged. There is a place for everybody in the program. Sportmanship is as important as skill in the athletic program at Chautauqua.

SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

A Sportsmanship Award will be made Saturday evening, August 31, to the boy and girl between the age of 10 and 15 inclusive who, in the opinion of a committee composed of the various chairmen and the Athletic Committee, have shown the most sportsmanlike conduct during the season. The award is based on participation, mental attitude, courtesy, friendliness and character - - and not necessarily outstanding ability. This is the most coveted award that can be earned and will be presented by the President of the Association.

BASEBALL

Baseball at Chautauqua is for everybody. Lynn Meeden will be in charge of baseball for the boys and young men. Games will be scheduled between competing Chautauqua teams so that all eligible players will stand a better chance of seeing action. Older men at Chautauqua are baseball minded too and are usually confident enough to challenge the youth at least once during the season! Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays are baseball days but there are no rules against scheduling a game or a practice workout at other times.

ROQUE

Archa Trabue this year heads the Roque Committee and will be in charge of the tournament where a 1957 Chautauqua Champion will be named Saturday, August 24. Roque is one of the oldest sports at Chautauqua where it has been played for nearly half a century. Young and old alike are enthusiastic about it.

Many of the best players at Chautauqua are men who have played it for more than a quarter of a century. A form of croquet, it originated in England. The courts at Chautauqua are kept in excellent condition, are lighted for night play and one court is restricted to use only by men. Women and children, however, have access to another court.

TENNIS

Favre Gould has accepted the assignment to head Tennis activities for the 1957 season. Favre, who has worked with young men for many years and has coached various sports, is now tennis coach at Wood River High School. A long-time resident of Chautauqua, Favre this season anticipates being able to spend much more time on the grounds than was possible in recent years. His availability to take charge of tennis activities is a fortunate break for Chautauqua and it is hoped that Chautauqua will regain this season some of its former prowess as a tennis center. Chautauqua Tennis Championship will be decided Saturday, August 3.

SHUFFLEBOARD

Lynn Schlansker again heads the Shuffleboard activities for the season. Here's a sport in which men and women, boys and girls all can participate and have a chance to win the championship. The tournament will be held July 13, the first tournament of the season. Be sure to enter.

BADMINTON

Another sport in which age limits cover a wide range is Badminton. Joe Smith is heading the Badminton activities for the season and has arranged a tournament for July 20. Girls as well as boys and women as well as men are urged to take advantage of the Badminton facilities and to enter the tournament. See Joe Smith for details.

HORSESHOES

Perennially popular at Chautauqua is the sport of pitching horseshoes. Many of the best pitchers can be found among the older men. Paul Schmidt (an exception to the rule because he is both good and young!) is determined to develop some good players among the younger ages. There will be a tournament July 27, but long before then get Paul to teach you some of the fine points of the game and get in enough practice to stay with the veterans in competition play.

BOWLING ON THE GREEN

Mel Norris continues as head of Bowling on the Green activities. The sport has become exceptionally popular at Chautauqua in recent years, having been introduced to the grounds by Chautauquans who took up the game in Florida during winter vacations. At Chautauqua the game is played on clay courts which are named in memory of the late Arthur Maier who did much to popularize the game in Chautauqua. See Mel Norris or just show up at the courts most anytime. You'll find plenty of "experts" to teach you the game! Champion will be named in tournament play August 24.

ARCHERY

Archery is a sport that is moving into its own at Chautauqua under the expert tutelage of Dr. Sylvester Hotze. For many years Bill Niergarth sponsored a Robin Hood Club at his cottage. As a result of that interest Archery now is a full-fledged sport. It is expected that this year Chautauqua Archers will meet outside teams and a Chautauqua tournament August 24 will decide the season champion. See Dr. Hotze for time schedule for supervised practice and coaching.

FENCING

Fencing has been revived at Chautauqua in recent seasons and it is hoped to develop sufficient interest and skill in the ancient sport to conduct a tournament August 17.

BOATING

While boating is not one of the supervised forms of sports at Chautauqua, it could hardly be omitted from any report of recreational activities there. Situated on Alton Lake, one of the fastest growing boating regions in the nation, Chautauqua provides an ideal vacation spot for those who enjoy boating, water skiing, fishing or other water sports. The Chautauqua Yacht Club, a separate corporation, maintains docks at Chautauqua and membership is made up of boat-owning Chautauquans. Each year Alton Lake (formed by the Alton dam across the Mississippi River) is becoming increasingly well known for its fine boating facilities and the beauty of the lake shore along the Illinois bluffs.

SWIMMING

Following the disappointing delays in completing the new swimming pool last year, Chautauquans are looking forward to the greatest swimming season ever in 1957. The new swimming pool is ready and waiting; extensive improvements have been made in the bathhouse in order that both pool and bathhouse will meet every exacting sanitation requirement.

Frank Woodrow is the pool manager. Larry Colbert will serve as life guard.

Special swimming contests are planned for all persons during the season. Any person who can swim can win an award. Details will be announced at start of season.

The pool will be open seven days a week, 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. every day of the season (weather permitting), and on Tuesday and Friday evenings from 6:30 to 8:00 o'clock.

Entertainment Program

Outsiders who came to gaze upon the smouldering remains of 17 cottages the cold, drizzly morning of March 19 this year may have looked down at the ashes or up at the scorched stubs of once magnificent shade trees and predicted that this was the end of Chautauqua.

True, a vast area of the beautiful grounds lay in ruins, the remains of cottages identifiable only by stark, standing brick chimneys or warped, fallen metal fixtures amid the still smoking ashes.

But any who made dire predictions about the future of Chautauqua - - even in the gray dawn of its most disastrous day - - were not Chautauquans. They were visitors. They didn't know that Chautauqua is not just a place. If it were just a place it might die when a disaster like this one strikes. Surely the thought and sight of cottages, their contents, their shrubbery - - and all those accumulated possessions which sentiment compels us to keep - - turned overnight into black, ugly ashes and mangled debris would have caused the owners to abandon Chautauqua if Chautauqua were just a place.

But Chautauqua is a way of life. Chautauqua is a Christian standard to live by. Chautauqua is recreation, rest, restoration. Chautauqua is children at play, protected from the noise and danger of city traffic. It is light hearted laughter, it is friendship at work among people on vacation. And because it is all these it endures. It grows. It survives whatever hardships and handicaps come.

And so, amid the strange in-season sound of hammer and saw as new cottages replace those destroyed March 19, Chautauqua presents its 72nd Season program from June 15 to September 1.

In the following Daily Program of Events you'll find weekly church services with outstanding guest preachers, mid-week devotions, weekly Sunday School, bake sales, travel lectures and pictures, card parties, book sales, Saturday night dances, 43 carefully selected movies, baseball games, Indian Dancers, tournaments in eight sports, a band concert, Children's Day program and Children's Day parade, Fourth of July fireworks and Fourth of July Barbecue, amateur shows and a Chautauqua Players performance - - and, with all, still time, we hope, for a good book or good conversation. These, in part, are what make Chautauqua.

But most of all what makes it are its people. We're glad and proud you're one of them!

Daily Program of Events

NOTE: The events shown on this and following pages are by no means all of the organized activities that will be taking place throughout the season. They are merely some of the major events. Services

The Springs Hotel

The Springs Hotel, under the supervision of the L.C.I.A., again will be managed during the 1957 season by Mrs. Bessie Hill of Alton. Her successful administration of the hotel during the 1956 season, and her hospitable treatment of guests, won many friends for Mrs. Hill, the L.C.I.A., and Chautauqua.

Assisting Mrs. Hill will be Miss Virginia Lurton.

The historic Springs Hotel has been put in spic and span order for the 1957 season. Remarkably reasonable rates are available by the day, week, month, or season. For details of rates and reservations, telephone Mrs. Hill at Springs Hotel, Chautauqua, Illinois.

Kentucky Home

For good food or comfortable, pleasant lodging, the Kentucky Home at Chautauqua has been a landmark for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Burnett, Chautauquans of long standing, operate Kentucky Home. Newly renovated rooms are available by the day, week, or month. Kentucky Home serves breakfasts, luncheons, and dinners daily, at surprisingly reasonable prices and in a homelike atmosphere. Kentucky Home also is available for special parties and banquets.

For reservations call directly to Kentucky Home at Chautauqua, Illinois.

Food Shop

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Brainerd are in charge of the food shop. Here you will find a complete stock of groceries, including fresh and frozen meats and vegetables. The store also stocks miscellaneous household items. The store is open every day. Because of the useful service which the store provides Chautauquans are urged to patronize the store for grocery needs.

"Station Stand"

The "Station Stand" is a favorite spot for a refreshing cold drink, an ice cream cone, a fancy soda or sundae. It also stocks cigarettes, cigars, snacks, candy bars and gum. With the new swimming pool in daily operation and under the direction of the Schmidt family it should do a thriving business. With Paul and Lucille on the "board of directors" active operation will be in the hands of their four sons, with Sam, Steve, and Dodie as active partners and Scotty vice president in charge of penny candy and bubble gum!

The Station Stand is a project of the L.C.I.A.

News Stand and Souvenir Shop

Steve Voss, who last year took over the news stand and souvenir shop at the entrance to the Board Walk from Mrs. F. A. Behymer, is back this year with a new line of merchandise. Here you will find postcards, souvenirs and various kinds of mementoes of your trip to Chautauqua. Here also you can reserve daily papers for a day, a week or a season. You'll find Steve Voss anxious to serve you.

Gift Shop

Each year the Chautauqua Gift Shop, under the direction of Mrs. Harold King, increases in popularity with visitors as well as summer residents of the community. Here you can browse to your heart's content among quality lines of new and attractive gift items. Here also you'll find a wide assortment of party favors, reeting cards, tallies and other merchandise for the party you are giving or to which you are invited. Many Chautauquans find it wise, during the leisure hours of the summer, to order next season's Christmas cards from the sample lines Mrs. King brings to Chautauqua.

The Administration Office

Mr. J. W. Newland will have charge of the office and grounds. Season tickets may be purchased from Mr. Newland or the Gateman and should be registered at the Administration Office.

Cottage Owners are required to secure approval of the Cottage Committee through Mr. Newland before renting cottages and also pay the Association cottage rental fee of 10%. On request of owners, Mr. Newland will show cottages to prospective renters.

Daily events will be posted on Bulletin Board. Special announcements will be made at Auditorium. Submit requests to Mr. Newland.

Organizations

Ladies Civic Improvement Association

Chautauquans are so accustomed to having the L.C.I.A. get behind every worthwhile Chautauqua project (and often come to the financial rescue of projects not permitted by the Association's budget) that few of us stop to realize that the Ladies Civic Improvement Association through its more than forty years has widened its scope far beyond even the realm encompassed by such a worthy name as Ladies Civic Improvement Association. Indeed, the L.C.I.A. not only works for civic improvement; it underwrites substantial parts of the season's program and assumes financial responsibility for operation and maintenance of the Springs Hotel, the Station Stand, Riverview Lookout and the Chapel.

The L.C.I.A. sponsors the weekly card parties, stages Children's Day, sponsors the Girls' Club, provides chaperones for the dances - - and, like a good wife and mother, which a majority of the members are, lends the ever-ready helping hand to whatever needs doing for the good of Chautauqua.

Chautauqua Men's Club

The organization for all men at Chautauqua is the Chautauqua Men's Club. This year it is headed by Milton (Speed) Grimm. All men are invited to become members. There are no dues. Funds are raised usually in the way most popular with men - - passing the hat to replenish the treasury!

Through the years many worthwhile projects have been accomplished through the cooperation of the Men's Club.

Fourth of July activities, which are sponsored by the Men's Club and under the direct supervision of Vice President Jack Hormell, will include balloon ascension, Barbeque Supper at the Cafeteria and fireworks at the Riverfront.

Annual dinner and election of officers will be held Sunday, August 11 at 6:30.

Chautauqua Boys' Club

Through the years many of the useful projects that have been carried through to completion at Chautauqua owe their success to the enthusiastic help of the Boys' Club. This year the boys again are planning a number of projects to be announced as the season progresses and they stand ready to assist those who need a helping hand. Membership in the club is open to all boys from junior high school through college age. If you qualify in this age bracket see one of the officers listed below or any member and join the Chautauqua Boys' Club.

Chautauqua Girls' Club

Since 1933 when Mrs. Charles M. Horner founded it, the Girls' Club has become a veritable junior edition of the L.C.I.A. These young ladies from the age of 12 up who comprise the membership, tackle a variety of projects with the determination of a women's organization and the enthusiasm of youth.

One of the major projects for the 1957 season is sponsorship of the dance on Saturday, July 27. Dances under the supervision of the Girls' Club always show originality and resourcefulness.

Mrs. Edward Keiser, Jr. serves as sponsor of the club and the liaison with the L.C.I.A., under whose tutelage the club operates.
